REFERENCE:

ECMA 22737, para 3 KAPOK

1. Re Munich's request in reference, AECASSOWARY/28 obtained the following information (dated 4 October '56) on Josef VEINTIMILLE from Father Maurice VAN DE MARLE, the General Vicar of the Apostolic Visitation (Archbishop BUCHKO) in France. VAN DE MARLE's information is allegedly based on personal conversations with VEINTIMILLE:

VEINTIMILLE was arrested by the MVD in Germany (date not specified) for political motives and was sentenced to ten years' labor in a concentration camp. During his imprisonment, VEINTIMILLE made the acquaintance of many Ukrainian prisoners among whom were Yuriy SHUKHEVICH and Father Mikola BUCHKO (see OFFA 21724, 15 June '56). VEINTIMILLE claimed to have known Yuriy SHUKHEVICH very well and that the latter was one of his students (sic). +PETIT (since his arrival in France, the latter has been turned by HUSCHAK as an intelligence swindler) were turned over to French authorities by the Soviets in Berlin toward the end of 1953. They immediately came to Paris where they were sent to the hospital at Boulogne for check-ups. While still in the hospital, VEINTIMILLE wrote a letter to Father VAN DE MARLE asking to meet with the latter in order to tell him about Father HUSCHAK with whom VAN DE MARLE was already in correspondence. VEINTIMILLE wanted to discuss with VAN DE MARLE the steps necessary to arrange for the liberation of HUSCHAK and for his entry into France. When VEINTIMILLE and PETIT were released from Boulogne Hospital, VAN DE MARLE put them into contact with the Bandierites in Paris. On the basis of an interview with VEINTIMILLE and PETIT, Boris VITOSHINSKII, editor of Ukrainian-Chas, wrote a long article consecrated in a large part to Yuri HUSCHAKOVICH. After VEINTIMILLE left Paris for Marseilles, he continued to write to VAN DE MARLE regarding the Mikala HUSCHAKOVICH affair and asking at the same time that VAN DE MARLE put him in contact with some serious Ukrainians. The Bandierites allegedly wrote to VEINTIMILLE in Marseilles but never received an answer from him. According to VAN DE MARLE, VEINTIMILLE's last known address was: Vallee du Marinier, L'Estagne, Marseilles.
